To cheer each other up whilst we are away from school Year 1 and 2 were tasked with writing a funny story that would make someone else giggle!

Get ready for lots of bad smells and unfortunate accidents!

Story by Lewis

Bob and Kevin were going to lunch. They had too many bananas to eat and then went out to play. They didn't know what to play so they used the banana skins to put on their feet. They used two sticks each as poles and used them to ski down the hill racing to the gates. Whoever won the race got to choose what they played next.

The toothless monster

Once upon a time there was a fat hairy monster who was purple and brown with green spots. He picks his nose but each time he picks it a tooth falls out. He picks his nose so much that he's only got five teeth left. You don't want to mess with him because he loses more and more teeth. Because he gets so angry he does a big fat poo made out of teeth the end.

yuck!

yuck!

I lost my toy poop

by Ria Mitchell

My favourite toy was my toy poop and I lost it when I was 3.

I was sad because my poop made everybody laugh.

My sister Jenny didn't think it was funny. She never helped me look for my poop.

One day my sister walked into her room and stepped onto a smelly looking poop. She screamed and screamed! When I heard the scream I came to see what the problem was.

"That is my toy poop" I said
"thanks Jenny"

My Poop and I lived happily ever after.
